ENDS LIFE WITH FIRE.

Chinese Fills Furnace With Wood, Crawls in and Incinerates Self.

(Associated Press Night Report.)
NELSON (B. C.) Jan. 16.—A Chinese porter in a hotel here committed suicide today in an unusual manner. Being sent to put fuel into the furnace, he nearly filled the firebox with wood, opened the drafts and crawled in. An hour later his carbonized body was found.

young girl, so young that she knew practically nothing of life or matrimony, she wedded A. W. Luce. He was many years older than his wife and has since repudiated her for persuading her that the difference in ages would be of little moment. Everything went well with the couple until two years ago, when Mrs. Luce met W. A. Wilson, a young man of her own age. The two fell in love.

Then comes the part in the story in which Mr. Luce figures as the hero or the "goat," according to the viewpoint. When he found that he could not make his wife happy he offered to let her have a divorce so that she could marry young Wilson. She finally agreed. In the meantime Wilson had gone to Los Angeles, so when the divorce was granted last June, Mrs. Luce went there and married him.

GAVE HER WEDDING GIFT.
Her traveling expenses to the Coast were paid by her ex-husband and she carried with her a sum of money as a wedding gift from him. He is a wealthy man and insisted that the young couple accept the wedding present.

On August 23, 1910, the young people were married at the Courthouse in Los Angeles. According to the laws of California this was a legal marriage. However, it was not legal under the laws of this state.

SPEAKER IS VOTED DOWN.

Insurgents Rush to Aid Democrats.

Combination Defeats Regular Republicans in Test of Rules.

Cannon Refuses to Concede Point Against Procedure and Forces Vote.

Acrimonious Debate Follows and Rebels Line Up With Political Enemies.

(Associated Press Night Report.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The stirring scenes of the last session of Congress when the House overthrew Speaker Cannon and took the making of its rules into its own hands, was re-enacted in part on the floor of the House today.

Threatened with what they believed to be an effort to "draw the teeth" of one of the most important of the new rules, Democrats and insurgents joined in the defeat of the Speaker. By a vote of 145 to 124, the combined forces rallied to the support of Representative Fitzgerald, Democrat, of New York, and sustained him in his appeal from the Speaker's ruling.

The fighting developed as the result of the second attempt to use the new rule which gives the House power to discharge a committee from further consideration of a bill that has been referred to it.

The insurgents and the Democrats believed this rule ironclad; that as soon as the consideration of bills by unanimous consent had been concluded, on every first and third Monday of the month, the House was bound by the new rule to take up the motions to discharge committees from the custody of the specified bills.

When the moment arrived today, however, Speaker Cannon gave recognition to Representative Hull of Iowa, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee. Mr. Hull moved that the House resolve itself into a committee of the whole, and take up the consideration of the Military Appropriation Bill, upon which it had been working last week.

There was an immediate rallying of the Speaker's forces. All the members of the House rose and declared their opposition to the Speaker's ruling. The House then voted to sustain the Speaker's ruling.

Sanity Questioned.

BARRY MAY BE SENT TO AN ASYLUM TO KILL SCANDAL.

Rear-Admiral's Retirement Will Be no Bar to Court-martial, But Department Authorities Will Suppress Further News—Naval Officers Astounded, Think Accused Is Insane.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The application of Rear-Admiral Edward B. Barry for retirement has been approved by President Taft, and Barry has been transferred to the retired list of the navy.

But retirement will be no bar to this aged officer having to face either a general court-martial or a board of medical experts, who will examine him as to his sanity, or both, as a result of the charges made by his subordinates on the battleship West Virginia.

According to his official record in the Navy Department, nothing further will be given to the public. Every move from now on by the department will be to suppress the facts of the scandal as reported this morning.

It was stated on high authority that all the means of the department will be used to hush up the matter, and that their only activity will be to have Rear-Admiral Barry examined by sanitary experts and sent to a sanatorium.

This has all been based on the press reports. Nothing officially will be done until Secretary Meyer has received a full detailed report of the occurrences on the West Virginia from Rear-Admiral Barry, and from the officers of the battleship.

Secretary Meyer stated today that he did not know of any charges having been made to the department. If such charges have been sent, the Secretary said, he had not been notified of it. He stated that he would get a full report, but that he did not propose giving it to the public. The officers and crew of the battleship West Virginia will be scattered among the other ships of the fleet and the vessel placed on the Atlantic fleet. The officers, in the meantime, will be separated and given new assignments.

Secretary Meyer stated today that the first intimation he had of the nature of a telegram came several days ago. He said the telegram did not intimate that there had been any trouble between the commanding officer of the Pacific fleet and his officers.

FEUD ENDS; ALL DEAD.

Brothers Shoot Each Other to Death; Lone Survivor Is in Penitentiary.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)
SCOTT'S FERRY (Okla.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An old fraternal feud ended here today when Sam and Bud Stanley, brothers and Choctaw freedmen, shot each other to death. They had been at enmity for years and in a general fight years ago, John, a third brother, so badly shot up Sam that the former was sent to the penitentiary, where he still is. Sam and Bud met at the former's home today as if by prearrangement and emptied an automatic revolver and repeating rifle respectively at each other at close range.

forces and stiffening of ranks among the insurgents and Democrats. Mr. Fitzgerald insisted upon the consideration of a motion to discharge a committee. This motion was upon the calendar.

Speaker Cannon declined to give Mr. Fitzgerald the preference, but said he would be glad to consider a point of order if Mr. Fitzgerald wanted to make one.

The Democratic member declared that he did not have to make a point of order; that he was the right to recognition under the new rule without the raising of any point of order against the Speaker's action.

FREE DEBATE FOLLOWS.
Insurgents, Democrats and regulars jumped into the free debate that followed. Upon the Speaker's refusal to recognize Mr. Fitzgerald, the latter finally was forced to make a point of order against taking up the Army Appropriation Bill.

The Speaker had his ruling on that point prepared in advance and read from his desk. He declared that the rule did not make it mandatory upon the House to take up the motions to discharge the committee; that it simply made such motions in order if the House desired to take them up. Upon this basis the Speaker held that Mr. Fitzgerald and the Army Appropriation Bill had the right of way, and that the motions provided for under the new rule could not be entertained.

"I appeal from the decision of the chair," cried Mr. Fitzgerald.

"I move to lay that motion on the table," cried Mr. Cannon.

Payne of New York, Republican leader of the House, the Payne motion was the first test of strength and it was taken by a vote of 145 to 124. This followed an acrimonious debate upon the ruling.

When the vote finally was taken up, the Speaker's ruling from Speaker Cannon's decision twenty-three insurgents.

SUFFRAGISTS DRAW FIRST BLOOD; BATTLE FOR BALLOT AT CAPITAL.

Elections' Committee in Senate Votes to Report Advisory Vote Bill With Recommendation Against Passage—Pave Way for Constitutional Amendment Plans, Los Angeles Women Reinforce Lobby.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An easy victory by the suffragettes, won before the Senate Elections Committee this afternoon, means an early vote on the suffrage question by the upper house. All the members of the Elections Committee, except Hare, voted to report adversely on the Sanford bill calling for an advisory vote two years hence by the women.

Wednesday night the Judiciary Committee is to hear the suffragettes and anti-suffragists on the Ball constitutional amendment providing for equal suffrage. It is a foregone conclusion that this committee will report favorably and that its report, coupled with that of the report on the advisory vote, measure of Sanford, means that a vote in the Senate is possible this week.

THE BATTLE GROUND.
It is conceded that the Senate is the battle ground and a test vote is needed to settle things. Senator Bell today said he thought there is a scant majority for suffrage. Others believe that if the Sanford measure shows strength in the Senate, it will have preference until such time as the Governor comes out with his "Big Stick."

The suffragette lobby here has been reinforced by Mrs. Folbush and Miss Sterry of Los Angeles and all the

ARIZONA'S DEVOTION TO FREAK LAWS DEVELOPS OPPOSITION.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After years of striving for sisterly recognition, Arizona is going to be left out of the Union of the States unless the people of the territory make an about face and change utterly its form of Constitution adopted by the Phoenix Constitutional Convention.

The people of Arizona apparently are too progressive in their temperament and endeavor. Perhaps the United States Senate would put it that the Arizonaans look with unkindly eyes on what was done in the Constitutional convention and it is pretty well known that President Taft never will approve the Constitution in its present form.

Even if approval should come from the President, Congress as at present constituted will not add its sanction, and as congressional consent is necessary Arizona probably must wait a while longer, while New Mexico, which to some extent it has affected to despise, is admitted into full union membership.

The Oregon idea is responsible for Arizona's troubles. The story of Arizona's difficulties in acquiring Statehood will not be uninteresting perhaps to students of present day political and economical thought.

Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon is the exponent of his State's idea. He has thought on the initiative and referendum and recall and other matters which are not to the liking of the influential men of Arizona.

Not long before the time set for the

"We maintain that the majority of women do not want to vote," she said. "I have been told that I am a liar. I represent 1,000 members of an association formed within three months to oppose this bill. Franchise is not a privilege, it is a right forced on women, the indifferent vote perhaps would be worse than the vicious vote. Let us have a chance to record our dissent."

Now in the White Sale We Feature Thousands of Yards Zion Laces, Edges and Insertions to Match, in Two Lots, 5c and 10c yd.

It's a long time since we have been able to present such a beautiful quality of laces in such vast assortments at these sale prices, 5c and 10c—Zion laces, American made, and yet they are said to rival the fine laces of Europe—Indeed so good are they, that all of the machines of the Zion Lace Industry have been operating day after day with the exception of Sundays, and the product of each machine is sold far in advance.

"I want to impress upon you the importance of the Bon Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets," said Miss Hartnett to the writer.

—Outside of the perfect way in which they are made and the fifty years' of corset experience that is behind the making —keep this fact before you always.

—Bon Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets do not subject the wearer to the breaking-in process—they fit as perfectly as a new glove and yet they feel like an old glove.

—I believe you are absolutely justified in saying that they are the most comfortable corsets that have ever been put on the market. That they are splendid corsets goes without saying, for they have been before the American public for 50 years.

During this demonstration, which closes Saturday night, I am giving personal talks and private fittings.

Royal Worcester and Bon Ton corsets are here in full assortments for women of every build, from the slender to the stout. Prices range Royal Worcester, Bon Ton.

Suits, Overcoats (blues, blacks) are vigorously drawing attention to our OVERCOAT line. It fits the smallest to the largest Man. We have recommended us, telling you that it shows half the cost of a suit. At the reduced price, every Boy or Man can afford it.

Edges and Insertions Single and Two Thread

Made in the painstaking way that has brought fame to the Zion lace industry. Some say they'll outwear the imported laces. These in widths from  $\frac{3}{4}$  to  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inches wide. A feature at 5c and 10c a yard.

This is good news right in advance of the spring season when your sewing campaign is being planned.

You may have bought scissors in the past at 29c. but surely never as good as these which is possible for us to present in this Tuesday sale.

Your choice of gilt stork handle embroidery scissors in sizes 3, 3½ and 4 inch. Button hole scissors 1½ and 2 inch. Nail scissors with curved blades and file attachment, also cuticle scissors in sizes 3, 3½ and 4. Every pair are fully guaranteed.

In line with better accommodations for our patrons, we have just established a branch of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

This will make it convenient for our patrons and especially those within the near vicinity of this store.

Messages will be sent and received from this Branch Office located in rear of aisle 5.

Suits, Overcoats and Trousers, (blues, blacks and uniforms alone excepted) are vigorously reduced. We call particular attention to our splendid assortments of OVERCOATS. All sizes---from coats to fit the smallest Boy to garments suited to the largest Man. Many Patrons have complimented us, telling us that no other store shows half the variety of Overcoats we do. At the reduced prices we certainly can interest every Boy or Man with an Overcoat want.

GREATEST BANQUET MARKS MILESTONE IN MARCH OF INDUSTRIAL FREEDOM.

Powerful Speakers at the Annual Function of Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association Sound the City's Slogan for the Open Shop.

SIMPLY, and with a significance the greater by its simplicity, the passing of a great industrial year and the dawn of a greater were signified by the annual banquet of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association at Levy's Cafe last night.

Six hundred men, in themselves representing the life and wealth and progress of Los Angeles, gathered there to break together the bread of common welfare and prosperity. In it they symbolized a brotherhood in achievements wrought and to come, as from the lips of those whose fingers lie upon the pulse of the people, they heard the tale of the past and the promise of the future.

Through all the years that the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association has stood for the weal of the mighty municipality that it watched grow from its sturdy nucleus, the annual banquets have been their milestones.

SOLID AND SIMPLE.

Though those in attendance comprised the bone and sinew of a great city, representing, individual by individual, industrial wealth running far into the hundreds of millions, the banquet was exceptional, even for the unostentatious association, in its lack of ostentation. As though to typify

Below them, the members, present in numbers to tax the capacity of the hall to its utmost, were seated at smaller tables that dotted the floor from end to end, with scarcely passage room between for the vast army of waiters.

In sheer point of attendance, as well as in other respects, the banquet was by far the most successful of any in the history of the organization. The great number present, drawn from those who constitute the very backbone of the association, proved anew, if it were needed, the unshakable and unshaken spirit of unity that has made the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association invincible to the attacks of its bitterest and least scrupulous enemies.

COURAGE UNDISMAYED.

Through the golden-tongued message that able and eloquent speakers flung to the leaders of Los Angeles last night, there rang everywhere the note of a triumph of courage undismayed. It was the echo of the indomitable spirit that carried a free city unshackled through a year blotted with cowardly attempts at a reign of industrial terrorism. The principle for which the exponents of legitimate rights and fair methods have always stood was never better exemplified than in the ringing address by the retiring head of the association, Pres. Charles H. Plummer.

the closely knit tie of intimacy that makes solid the industrial phalanx of the Southland, there was an entire absence of stiff and segregating formality. The heads of Los Angeles' greatest business houses, factories, public utility corporations, industrial plants—every concern of any significance in the great city rubbed elbows that were clad in loose and comfortable informal dress.

Though a function of greater significance, perhaps, than any to occur at other times throughout the year, there was but little in its setting to indicate the fact. Aside from the profusion of flowers and ferns scattered everywhere over the white naper and glittering silver, there was no attempt at elaborate decorations. The music was tastefully chosen, well arranged and excellently rendered at intervals in a menu appropriate, yet simple.

At one end of the great room, the speakers and directors of the association were seated at a long table.

The equitable and unequivocal position on labor questions for which Los Angeles has come to be known everywhere between the seas, has seldom received abler exposition than by Rev. Baker P. Lee and Attorney Gurney E. Newlin, or been received by more spirited endorsement than by those who heard them.

In token of their appreciation of the services rendered the association by Mr. Plummer, its members last night presented him with a handsome gold watch and chain, the former bearing upon its case an appropriate inscription, in acknowledgment of their debt. In presenting the beautiful timepiece, Max Meyberg voiced the sentiment of the association with the words:

"WATCH AND LOVING CUP."

"It is hard for the average member to realize the gravity of the matters which sometimes confront the president of our organization—matters that require undoubted courage and will-power to execute. It is but natural, therefore, that we, the members of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, the annual spread of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association last night at Levy's. President Plummer gave an able resume of the labor situation, clearly setting forth the sound status of the organization on the subject of industrial freedom, for which it is achieving a tremendous victory of vast import to the future of Los Angeles. Rev. Mr. Lee and Attorney Newlin spoke on the necessity of maintaining such a condition of affairs that employers may hire who they please and manage their own business. Secretary Zeelandelaar was presented with a silver loving cup in recognition of his services to the association and the community, and the president

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City Engineer Hamlin yesterday submitted plans to the Board of Public Works for a municipal railroad from San Pedro to the harbor at Wilmington and San Pedro. The San Pedro Transportation Company yesterday threatened to bring an injunction against the operation of a municipal ferry between San Pedro and Terminal Island by the city of Los Angeles but the statute relied upon is regarded as ineffectual.

The Board of Public Works yesterday suggested to the City Council that a watchman be employed to keep track of all persons entering the City Hall.

Gertrude Driggs will be in Judge McCormick's court tomorrow afternoon, on a petition to have her committed to San Quentin on the charge of forgery, suspended indefinitely.

Henry T. Russell brought an action in Superior Court yesterday to restrain the city of Los Angeles from letting the contract for the construction of a municipal ferry from San Pedro to Terminal Island, and Judge Bordwell has the matter under advisement.

After an entire day spent in securing a jury in the Frank M. Bell murder case, not one was accepted at the close of court last night, in the department of Judge Cabanis.

Because of the crowded condition of the city jail, forty-seven petty offenders were released in Police Court yesterday.

Though the woman refused to appear against him, a man who brutally beat his wife, was sentenced to ninety days in jail without alternative of a fine.

AT THE CITY HALL.

HAMLIN PLANS A HARBOR ROAD.

CITY ENGINEER SUGGESTS SAN PEDRO STREET.

Temporary Scheme Is Submitted to Board of Public Works With No Estimate as to Cost, But Recommendation That It Will Be of Inestimable Benefit to the City.

City Engineer Hamlin yesterday submitted plans to the Board of Public Works for a municipal railroad from San Pedro to the harbor at Wilmington and San Pedro. He proposes to use San Pedro street as the main artery in the city and at San Pedro to occupy the harbor front now being reclaimed, with branches radiating to all of the city's water frontage.

The plan involves some important issues. It contemplates the cancellation of the franchise under which the Los Angeles Railway Company is operating from Fourth street to Twenty-second street as void. It would also necessarily deny the application of the Pacific Electric Railway for a franchise from Aliso street to Seventh street.

The route as described in the City Engineer's plan is a road to the east of Nigger Slough and continues in a southeasterly direction to Wilmington and San Pedro. From Wilmington it may follow the water front to take a line to the west of Fifty-ninth street.

The southern portion of the road will constitute practically a belt around the harbor connecting with all important wharves, warehouses, docks and piers. This part of the plan is left to be more fully worked out as the need for it is developed.

City Engineer Hamlin in his report says: "Whatever is done in the near future regarding a line from Los Angeles to the harbor, the belt line around the harbor front is an absolute necessity. We have a great opportunity at the harbor, let us take advantage of it and make the harbor what it should be—nearly free to the public as it is possible to make it."

The harbor road will offer one phase of solution to the question what shall be done with the aqueduct power. With 250,000 horse power of electrical energy at less than a cent a kilowatt, the city will have the cheapest kind of power for the electric traction.

The main question at the present time, however, is not so much one of construction plans or immediate financing as the question of a route open and preparing to take possession of San Pedro street. Hamlin says of the route he has selected and the franchise situation:

"So far as I am aware, there now remains but one street unincorporated by franchise grants to the city from the south and reaches the heart of the wholesale and industrial district. This route is San Pedro street and South Park avenue, the one which has been chosen, and these considerations have largely influenced the selection."

The Los Angeles Railway Company is operating cars over San Pedro street from South Park avenue from Fourth street to a point just south of Second street. It is certain that this company has no franchise on these streets from about Twenty-second street to the city limits, and the public, by a majority vote, has decided not to grant another franchise over this portion of the route. It is possible, however, that the franchise on San Pedro street from Fourth street to about Twenty-second street is also void, and, in my opinion, the status of this franchise grant should be determined as soon as possible. With these franchise matters cleared away, as I have reason to believe they will be, the city will have an unincorporated street over which to reach the business district."

Another complication has arisen from the fact that the Pacific Electric Railway Company has applied for a twenty-one year franchise on San Pedro street from Aliso street to Second street. This street has been recently widened and widened to a width of eighty feet between Aliso street and Second street. The portion of the street which the franchise is desired passes through the present wholesale and industrial district, and it is obvious that a franchise on this street will be of enormous value to the Pacific Electric Railway Company, and on the other hand, will be just as valuable to the city. It is, in fact, a strategic point from which freight can be distributed. Personally, I do not believe this franchise should be granted, but that this route should be reserved for the city's own needs. The interurban traffic question can be solved in some other way. In any event, no franchise should be sold on this street without the most careful and serious consideration of all aspects of the matter, and especially that of the future needs of the city. All franchises are important, but none, because of the needs of the city, are more important than others.

City Engineer Hamlin's plan is a road to the east of Nigger Slough and continues in a southeasterly direction to Wilmington and San Pedro. From Wilmington it may follow the water front to take a line to the west of Fifty-ninth street.

determine, or, in other words, a revocable franchise, could be granted the Pacific Electric Railway Company with the reservation that the city may purchase its track and fixtures at some future time. There are many practical difficulties in this plan, however, and there is danger that some important feature may be overlooked and because of this the franchise may, in fact, become perpetual. Just what the city will purchase, and the necessary details must be worked out before the franchise is granted. It is decided to grant a franchise of this character. Regarding the cost of the proposed railroad and terminals, I will state that I prefer to wait until surveys are made before submitting an estimate."

UPKEEP OF PARKS.

COMMISSIONER'S NEW PLAN.

The Park Department during the past summer has had surveys of all the parks made and the different features of the parks classified, such as areas of lawns, flower beds and shrubbery. After careful investigation, a standard was adopted representing the acreage which should be cared for by one man in various classes of work.

Deductions made as to the number of men required in each park. Allotments were then made to each park for labor and also for material and consequently the expenditures compared with the allotment.

Secretary Herbert has inaugurated a cost-keeping system by which the accounts are segregated for each park into betterment and maintenance expenses, and has compared the actual expenditures for the quarter ending December 31 with the allotment for each park for maintenance expenses.

By comparing actual expenses with the allowance a certain rate of economy is determined for each park. In addition to this the parks have been rated as to their efficiency, which means the amount accomplished with the allotment that has been made. The general condition of the parks being taken into consideration.

FERRY CONTEST.

PROTEST IS FILED.

The San Pedro Transportation Company has filed a protest against the proposed municipal ferry between San Pedro and Terminal Island. The petitioners state that they are informed the city is preparing plans to engage in the transportation business and they call attention to the fact that they have a franchise granted by the Supervisors on November 15, 1904, under which they are operating a ferry between the two points.

They quote section 283 of the Civil Code of California as providing that no ferry shall be operated within a distance of one mile above or below a ferry already in service. The section, however, suggests the possibility of some other construction of the law in the case of San Pedro. It reads as follows:

"No toll bridge or ferry must be established with or on or below a regularly established ferry or toll bridge, unless the situation of a town or village, the crossing of a public highway or of an interurban electric line or of a river or bay render it necessary for public convenience."

The exceptions are so liberal that the city is not much worried about its legal right to operate a ferry. The Board of Public Works went right on standing the suggestion of an injunction contained in the communication. Joe Fellows made a bid of $250 on a franchise for a ferry between San Pedro and Terminal Island. The city made a bid of $250 for constructing three landings and $150 for dismantling the old wharf and building a new one.

LOCK THE DOORS.

CITY HALL TOO FREE.

MAYOR ALEXANDER called the attention of the Board of Public Works to the fact that often after office hours persons who have no business there are found loitering in the corridors of the City Hall. The board in turn suggests to the Council that the City Hall have a watchman who guards the door only left open after closing time and registers every person entering.

It is probable that the city will adopt the Courthouse plan and have a watchman for evenings and Saturday afternoons so that all employees who come and go will be registered and persons who have no business within will not gain admission to the City Hall.

GARBAGE QUESTION.

TO BURN OR NOT TO BURN.

The Inspector of Public Works had many troubles to report to the Board of Public Works yesterday. It was the same old garbage question under various new guises.

It was that way. In the first place the merchants complained that excessive charges were made for the dumping of garbage. To relieve them a contract was let to D. B. Low for the operation of the incinerator once abandoned. Then the owners of dumping grounds reduced their charges below those of the incinerator. The city was trying to compel the delivery of the garbage to the incinerator. If the incinerator is closed the rates for dumping might be raised. If the garbage is not all delivered to the incinerator, the lesser cannot afford to put in the extra furnace that is needed. If the city is successful in its suit against the hog feeders the incinerator will become a matter of necessity. It is necessary in any event to have a place for the destruction of decayed fish, dead animals and other garbage that cannot be dumped.

The Inspector respectfully suggests that he is putting a difficult problem up to the Board of Public Works, but he considers it necessary that recommendations be determined and recommends that Low be urged to increase the capacity of the incinerator and that the garbage haulers be compelled to deliver all waste garbage there.

TWICE CONVICTED.

ASKS FOR MERCY.

IS FACING FIVE-YEAR TERM FOR FORGERY.

Friends of Mrs. Gertrude Driggs Rally to Her Support When Jail Sheriff Heaches Close-Doctors Will Testify She Is Physically Unable to Endure Prison Life.

Gertrude Driggs, twice convicted of forging the name of John J. Charney to a lease involving a large acreage at the Palms, is again a suppliant for mercy at the hands of the court.

The remittitur of the Court of Appeals, by which the trial court is released with jurisdiction, was received yesterday by Judge McCormick. Yesterday, the rearrested Mrs. Driggs, who has been at liberty on $5000 bail since the judgment of the Superior Court, was arraigned by the Court of Appeals.

The old lady, accompanied by her two daughters, Mrs. Florence Thorburn, Mrs. Grace McDonald, and her two children, with the faithful friend of the convicted woman, Mr. Hester Griffith, put in an appearance in Judge McCormick's department at 4 o'clock.

It was arranged that the petition filed in behalf of Mrs. Driggs, for the withholding of the commitment, should be heard tomorrow afternoon at 10 o'clock. At that time friends of Mrs. Driggs will furnish evidence which, in their opinion, will show that she is physically unable to withstand the rigors of a five-year term at San Quentin, to which she was sentenced by Judge Davis. It is understood that the court will name two reputable physicians to examine Mrs. Driggs's physical condition.

Numerous signed petitions asking Judge McCormick to extend leniency to Mrs. Driggs were presented to the court yesterday. It was also stated that the District Attorney had no desire to further pursue Mrs. Driggs, his public duty having ended when she was twice convicted. It is believed that the Charney heirs will sign a petition asking that the court show the woman mercy, on the ground that the record has been closed.

If she is released, but still held under the authority of the court, Mrs. Driggs will be cared for by the two daughters in a home in the city. Her attention to their mother when Mrs. Driggs was ordered to jail yesterday pending the hearing she broke down and wept.

THE CENSUS STAKES.

Or the Race of 1910.

There has been many a contest in olden days, I ween; And many a race for prize and place And many a thrilling scene, But none so full of push and pull, Of skill and strength, I ken, As that great race—the greatest yet—Where every modern city met, The champion census cup to get—The cup of nineteen-ten.

O' saw ye not Seattle? Mighty in stride is she, And Portland, whose web-footed speed Can sweep the dew from mead, And San Francisco, brave indeed! The guardian of the sea; Tacoma's feet are light and fleet, Olympia fears no fate, And breezy Denver's hopes stand high, Phoenix has raised her desert cry, The flags of San Diego fly Above the Silver Gate.

But ah! beyond all rivals, The fairest of the fair, See her of whom all nations speak, Roman in strength, in grace all Greek, 'Twixt ocean blue and mountain peak, The flush of sunset on her cheek, The sunrise in her hair, So strong, so swift, so splendid, Whose form is this? Ye gods! Los Angeles—tis she! Oh, who Will back her chance at nine to two, Or ask for surer odds?

Watch where the race grows hotter, No pause, no halt, no rest! As one who slides down pole well-greased, With deadly thud, the Jaded East Goes down before the West. Phoenix has found the pace too hot, Denver has ceased to mount; The pads of Portland fall—and hark! Close to the quarter million mark Seattle takes the cup.

And one unrivaled figure Swift to the goal has sped; Los Angeles alone remains, Still plugging up her glorious gains, Still forging far ahead. The record of ten thousand years Goes whistling down the wind; Proud victor of the census race, She sets the population pace And drags the world behind.

HARRY F. BOWLING.

NO JURORS SECURED.

BELL CASE ON TRIAL.

The trial of Frank M. Bell, who is charged with shooting O. P. Wideman at Artesia, July 23, last, was called yesterday in Department Eleven, presided over by Judge Cabanis of San Francisco. It is expected that at least one week will be spent in the hearing. The eighty members of the trial jury in the department, together with about half as many from Judge McCormick's court, were examined as to qualifications to sit in the case, and not a single man was accepted by both sides. The questioning will be continued this morning, and the chances are that a special venire will be necessary.

The killing of Wideman was the sequel of a long series of difficulties between the parties, beginning with the reported attempted shooting of Wideman by Bell at the Hotel Alhambra about three years ago. This was followed by the arrest of Bell on the charge of perjury in connection with litigation concerning the yacht Aloha. Allegations of fraud were made on both sides, and it is understood that one of the distances of Bell, including that of temporary insanity at the time of the shooting, will be the alleged misconduct of Wideman, involving membership in the Black Hand.

The shooting of Wideman was premeditated, according to the evidence adduced by the prosecution, in that at the time it being testified that Bell had ridden on the Artesia trolley line on several occasions, presumably looking for Wideman.

MUNICIPAL FERRY.

TAXPAYER FILES PROTEST.

A petition for an order temporarily restraining the City of Los Angeles, City Council and Board of Public Works, from entering into a contract for the construction of what is to be known as a municipal ferry from San Pedro to Terminal Island, was filed in the Superior Court yesterday. The petition was signed by George Pollock, founder of grand larceny, was released on one year's probation. The brother of the accused was acquitted on the same charge.

ON PROBATION. In Judge McCormick's court yesterday, George Pollock, founder of grand larceny, was released on one year's probation. The brother of the accused was acquitted on the same charge.

DAMAGE ACTION. John H. Foy, brought suit against the City of Los Angeles yesterday for $1000 damages, by reason of injuries suffered by the plaintiff while engaged as a workman on the Owens River Aqueduct.

DESIRE TO MORTGAGE. A petition was filed in the Superior Court yesterday, for authority on the part of the First Presbyterian Church, Garfield, to mortgage the premises of the congregation for $350.

OLIVER ESTATE. The first report current of Gertrude Oliver, executrix of the estate of Byron L. Oliver, was approved in Judge Rivera's court yesterday. The total value of the estate is given as $16,830.

CHANGE OF NAME. William Charles Worcester, a resident of Pasadena, was allowed by Judge Bordwell yesterday to change his name to William Charles Wooster.

CHARGES AGAINST SHANNON. Four charges of embezzlement were filed in Justice Shimmerfeld's court yesterday against O. T. Shannon, purser on the Banning steamers plying between San Pedro and Catalina. Edward Mahar, representing the Willamette Transportation Company, is the complaining witness. It is alleged that the defalcations were committed as follows: January 3, $177.96; November 28, $128.60; December 28, $161.70, and November 30, $165.35.

PATTERSON IS YAQUI FIGHTER.

MEXICAN MINING PROSPECTOR
IS IN THE CITY.

In His Line of Fighting Indians He
Has Become Possessed of Mining Properties That Have Excited the Cupidity of Such Big Interests as the Guggenheims.

L. S. Patterson of La Brea, Sonora, Mex., is at the Alexandria for a few days. He is a mining man and prospector of years of experience, and a Yaqui Indian fighter of known prowess. Mr. Patterson has spent the last seven years in Mexico, and knows the country like a book. He is now in Los Angeles spending a well-earned vacation, but will shortly return to his Mexican mining properties.
Patterson's experiences in Mexico and his knowledge of the country are not for the fact that while fighting Indians he picked up several mining claims that have excited the cupidity of the Guggenheims and other big mining promoters. He would feel that the years have not been well spent.
However, he comes out of his varied experiences with the satisfaction of having sold one mine to the Guggen-heims, and being possessed of several others that they would like to have.
The Buena Vista mine has about 400 feet of development work, and some very high assays have been secured.
The width of the vein is four feet,
with 200 ounces of silver, 36 per cent.
of copper and gold running from $10 to $100 to the ton. This is one of the properties controlled by Patterson and he has several others. The Padre mine has about five feet, the vein showing silver and lead, running 125 ounces of silver to the ton. It is a true fissure vein in granite.
Patterson also has a silver ledge about fifty feet wide that runs from ten to 100 ounces of silver with an iron dike on the south side running parallel with the silver. This mine is known as the Por Venir. The Verde Buena mine shows silver, copper and iron. It is first-class smelting ore, running 20 per cent. copper and eighteen ounces of silver at a depth of sixty feet.
The Mina Grande mine has not been developed, but the outcrop runs from $3 to $50 gold. This mine is located about one-half mile from the Prieta mine and two miles from the La Gloria mine, which have paid $5,000,000 in dividends. The Apache mine, also owned by Patterson, has about thirty-six feet of work and assays 25 per cent. copper and sixteen ounces of silver.
However, there have been samples from the workings that run 250 ounces of silver and 40 per cent. copper.
The Peralta mine, copper and silver, is so good that the first carload sold for $1200. There are about 150 feet of workings. The Buena Vista mine is located about four miles from the Prieta mine, and the La Gloria mine is located on the Yaqui River, and there is a wagon road to the mine. The Padre mine is about seven miles from the railroad and on the Yaqui River. The Por Venir is about two miles from the Southern Pacific on the Yaqui in Northern Sonora. The Peralta mine is two and one-half miles from the Southern Pacific road.
The Verde Buena is located about forty miles from the Southern Pacific on the Yaqui River and only two miles from the Buena Vista mine, which was operated by the Richardson Bros. The Apache mine is located five miles from the Buena Vista mine. All the properties named above are owned by L. S. Patterson, E. M. Greenlee and D. R.
Grove.

COUNTY TREASURER'S REPORT.
County Treasurer Hunt's report for December, which was submitted yesterday to the Board of Supervisors, shows that there is a fat little roll in the county exchequer. There was $2,939,433.16 on hand when the month opened. The treasurer received $4-64,968.81 and disbursed $1,711,814.91.
When the new year opened he had a balance of $5,832,597.06.

DEATH OF FORMER PARTNER.
S. J. Whitmore, president and general manager of the Hotel Alexandria Company, received a telegram yesterday advising him of the death of D.
J. Dean, proprietor of the Hotel Baltimore in Kansas City. Previous to his coming to Los Angeles five years ago Mr. Whitmore and Mr. Dean were associate managers of the Hotel Baltimore and the Midland Hotel, the two largest hotels in Kansas City. Mr.
Dean died Sunday morning.

Calzona
BY RAIL & RIVER

The Greatest Opportunity
the West Ever Offered Is Land Development

CALZONA is the new city on the Colorado River and its on the California side.
CALZONA is the logical center and railroad distributing point for 100,000 acres of the richest soil in the world.
CALZONA is the center of the latest mining excitement in the Southwest. Two mines are shipping ore running from $100 to $1000 a ton.
CALZONA is on the border line of the Colorado Indian Reservation containing 200,000 acres of land which may be opened soon.

Do You Want a Chance to Make a Small
Fortune on a Small Investment?
This Is What We Want—Men to take Care of Some of the Business That Is Coming to Calzona.

THE CALZONA COMPANY is engaged in the general development of the Colorado River region. We are having engineering plans completed for an irrigating plant to cover 5000 acres of land immediately surrounding the town and to supply the town. We are building an automobile road to Blythe, over which we will handle the immense business of that district, which has no railroad. We have a telephone system to the surrounding mines.
Everything is pointing to CALZONA as one of the best towns in the Southwest. You will find there the same opportunities that existed in Phoenix, Tucson and other Western cities just before the tide of development set in.
YOU WON'T MEET ANYONE FROM CALZONA. We have sent quite a few people down there, and they refuse to come back.
YOU MUST KNOW MORE ABOUT CALZONA! We take pleasure in answering all inquiries, and have excursions going out every few days.

LOS ANGELES (Loco Ahng-hay-lis.)

Entered at the Postoffice as mail matter of Class II.

Wipe Out Say.

Wipe out the name of Rear-Admiral Edward D. Barry, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, from the naval register. There is no room for such a man on the roll of honor. About face! Skidoo!

NUMERICALLY SPEAKING.

Under the new legislative apportionment bill Los Angeles county will be entitled to seventeen Assemblymen and eight Senators. That ought to be a sufficient vote in the Assembly to secure equal and just justice for this end of the State, and especially for Los Angeles county.

WOULDN'T WORK.

Back in old Indiana a man has made a wager that for $100 he will quit kissing for a year. He might do it back among the footers, but he couldn't do it in California or a million dollars a year, unless he was made of stone or some other inanimate stuff.

WELL SPENT.

The Colorado Good Roads Conference will ask the Legislature of that State to appropriate a half-million dollars for the improvement of the roads in the Centennial State. The legislators will find that the money will be a good investment if its expenditure is properly safeguarded. There is no better advertisement for a State than good roads.

NO WEETS.

There will be no tears over the collapse of the "food trust," with headquarters in Chicago. It is alleged that the unusual prices asked for commodities during the last decade have been due to the manipulations of this organization. But it managed to hold together until after the holiday season—the hog!

WHAT THEY LIKE.

The Democratic members of the lower house of Congress will hold a caucus Thursday evening, to try to determine some definite course of action in regard to organization. The attendant ruction is likely to make the political seismograph at the national capital show signs of a great disturbance. But how they do enjoy it.

HATCHES 'EM.

The affairs of the Sunset National Oil Co., of which O. A. Trivette, the unkindest of men, is president, are being probed by the Federal court at San Francisco. Laboring men have invested their savings in the stock of the concern and lost it. Everything is fish that comes to the net of Trivette.

THE SACRAMENTO MADNESS.

The "Oregon plan" is touted at Sacramento as the proper thing for future elections to the United States Senate. Under that sort of a deal the Republicans of Oregon elected a majority of the Legislature of that State, and were bound to elect a Democrat, Chamberlain, to the Senate. Oh, that a beautiful arrangement! Oh, wise young guys!

THE PERFECT MAN.

All this talk about "the perfect man" is mere bosh. There is no such person and there is not likely to be until the human race quits wearing shoes and tight collars, ceases to speak of pants and other modern improvements. The perfect man cannot be reduced until there shall have been at least three generations of men who have never worn clothes.

MEMORY THAT SPURS.

In addressing some New York workmen recently Andrew Carnegie said that the memory of the hardships endured by his mother had been a great spur to his ambitions. It is easy and pleasant for a rich man to leisurely reflect upon elements which may have entered into his success. Persons are prone to account for extraordinary achievements by systems of which they are blissfully unaware in the actual struggle to arrive. Poe writes the "Raven" out of a fine frenzy of inspiration and then exalts its credulity by a coldly intellectual analysis of the philosophy of composition. The Carnegies and Rockefellers obey certain business principles, master a motley of natural resources, adjust the output of necessities to the moment's demand and then hangily account for their riches by the fact that they never smoked or drank more than was good for them, or that their parents were innocent of vulgar excesses which early they could not afford.

Nevertheless we are constrained to confess a real value in the present Carnegie bias. There can be no doubt whatever that men and women have both a solace for their burdens and a high incentive for their efforts in recalling the heroism with which self-sacrificing parents faced the problems of gaining a livelihood. Children who have once shared meager comforts stained at the cost of dreadful toil will find their food sweeter all of their lives for having partaken of that sacrament which every meal provided by love's labor becomes. Men are grateful for the crumbs and for the bread of wearying toil. Men are keenly appreciative of all service if the hands of a blessed mother who was unacquainted with labor.

This is an age in which we hear much of the value of the mother's love. But it is not this argument alone that comes from those who want no lies at all. Those who have welcomed the coming of little ones under any and all circumstances have often blessed their children with examples of economy and thrift and have led them into those habits of wholesomeness which bring a fine capacity for earnest endeavor. If a man has the will to bear his share of life's burdens he will always find a happy way to his life of its unalloyed pleasures.

hope that with the accession of Gov. Johnson to the Executive chair he would discontinue the slang-whanging methods that marked his canvass when he out-mobbed the State, and with sinister foreboding working like the piston rod of a horizontal engine, and voice pitched to the tune of "the wolf's long howl on Oonalska's shore," he denounced all men who did not agree with his peculiar views and his peculiar methods.

In this hope we are doomed to disappointment, for the Governor, in shameless disregard of the exterior decencies of his high office, has emulated his prototype Bombastes Furioso, who nailed his old foot to his front door and labeled them

"Whoever dare those boots displace Must meet Bombastes face to face."

The Governor is an abnormal egotist. He is an exaggerated, personal pronoun—first person, singular number. He is in his own estimation two personal pronouns, "I" and "It." He is not satisfied with his constitutional right to veto any proposed law of which he does not approve, and with his right to propose any law he desires to have enacted, and to accompany either his veto or his recommendation with such reasons as he may choose to assign. He goes further. He assumes and threatens to act as detective officer, as prosecuting attorney, as judge, as jury and as Grand Inquisitor, not only of the acts but of the motives of such members of the Legislature as may decline to cooperate with him, and to punish them for their recalcitrance by publicly branding them as thieves who have been bribed by corporations.

In his most recent pronouncement the Governor says: "I am going to call the roll on the Legislature, and show their constituents how each one stands on good government measures." Good government measures, it may be explained, are such measures as have been framed by the Governor and approved by Hooley Lissnerski, or framed by H. L. and approved by the Governor.

The Governor proceeds as follows: "Too long there has been withheld praise or blame for the actions and motives of the lawmakers here." When the Governor issued this manifesto the Legislature had been in session but nine days. Its members had been guilty of but one action—the election of Works—and of that the Governor is suspected of having approved. The threatened men had not put any "motives" in sight, and it is submitted that his Excellency has been sufficiently diligent, and that he does not deserve the self-censure of having "too long withheld HIS praise or blame."

The Governor further says, referring doubtless to those who voted for Works—"a fine body of men here. There may be some solid body and soul to corporations—referring probably to those who voted for Spaulding. If so the roll call will show this, and I will call the roll so that no mistake can be made. No man shall obstruct the progress of popular government—meaning thereby the government of Johnson—and still keep a cloak of hypocrisy. I am going to name no names now but I have in mind certain men."

The Governor yearns for the limelight. He shrinks from seclusion. In the speech from which we have quoted he says: "If the press will print what I have to say from time to time I will be grateful." The Times does not invoke his gratitude for giving publicity to his statements, for it is of the opinion that he has emulated the example of Dogberry and written himself down an ass. It regrets that the Governor of California should have made himself an object of ridicule and contempt. The Senators and Assemblymen whom he threatens with the lash of his tongue unless they do his bidding are not slaves, neither are they school children of whom it will be said: "Full well they laughed with countenanced glee."

At all his jokes, and many a joke had he. Full well the busy whisper circling round, Conveyed the dismal tidings when he frowned."

The gentlemen who are warned by the Governor that if they fail to endorse his views and pass the laws which he ordains they will be branded by him as "hypocrites who have been solid body and soul to corporations," are men who were elected to legislative seats by the same vote, at the same time and on the same platform of principles as the Governor. They are responsible to their constituents for the discharge of their legislative duties, and are not responsible to the self-constituted autocrat who assumes to act as their master. There is not one among them who is not the intellectual and moral equal, if not the superior of Hiram W. Johnson. The election of this bombastic, self-assertive, conceited, dominating man as Governor, gives him no right to criticize, or threaten, or attempt to drive legislators who may happen to disagree with him. The Legislature of California is not a mob of thieves, slaves, hypocrites and incompetents, as the Governor intimates. The sooner the Governor drops the whip he is brandishing the better it will be for his future reputation.

CANNED ROMANCE.

Los Angeles is rich in a variety of industries and among these none is more nearly world-renowned than the manner in which its sylvan parks give to the public a fabulous output of delightful love-making at second hand. Griffith Park, for instance, has become a sentiment factory in which sweet nonsense is canned that it may be peddled through the United States at ten cents per bill and five cents per copy. If one dare shock the sensibilities by considering what may be the practical side of love-making as a fine art, surely the perpetual embalming of premeditated love affairs upon the films of a moving picture machine by six large companies is a golden asset for Los Angeles and the Southland. Every small theater in the United States is daily showing the pictures of our sunny flower-land, and pictures of anything so lovely cannot do other than prove a tremendous advertisement for this section.

Locally, the motion picture people may be something of a pest, but their value to the community as national and international advertisers is inestimable. Their presence in the parks, however, has made romance of the original kind somewhat less spontaneous than it probably was in the days before the canning of romance had become a local industry. If today a body meets a body coming through the rye, a body takes no chances on making a body cry, least a moving picture camera should be taking in the scene. Today if a lady suspects a gentleman of being about ripe for a delicate avowal, to suggest a stroll in one of the parks at the winking hours of sunset and of twilight is the last proposition she would make. It would be too bad if just when a man felt the last care falling from his heart and when the silence of the woods and the fragrance of the wild flowers were conspiring to commit him to folly, the stillness of such a tender moment should be rent by the war whoops of make-believe Indians, the yells of actor cowboys, and the clattering hoofs of real horses belonging to an outfit bent on reviving the theatrical value of life in the wild west. No, it is no longer safe to go a-wooing in some of the parks about Los Angeles, but think of the advertising which the city receives, and never, never, forget that advertising pays.

AN INDIAN-NEGRO-CHINAMAN.

Some curious decisions of the Supreme Court of California may be found in the early volumes of the California State Reports. One of the most singular was that of People vs. Hall, reported in the fourth volume of the reports. In that case the court decided that, legally, a Chinaman was both a negro and an Indian.

George W. Hall, the appellant, was convicted of murder upon the testimony of Chinese witnesses. At that time there was no statutory or Constitutional prohibition against the admission of Chinese testimony, but the criminal practice act provided that "no black or mulatto person, or Indian, shall be allowed to give evidence in favor of or against a white man."

The learned court held that "the word 'black' may include all negroes, but the term negro does not include all black persons;" that by the use of the term "black" the Legislature intended to mean the opposite of "white." It held that a Chinaman, not being white, was therefore black, and being black was therefore a negro. "The evident intention of the act," says the court, "was to throw around the white man a protection for life and property which could only be secured by removing him above the corrupting influences of degraded castes... who have nothing in common with us in language, country or laws." The Legislature adopted the most comprehensive terms to embrace every known class or shade of color, as the apparent design was to protect the white person from the influence of all testimony other than that of persons of the same caste. The use of these terms must, by every sound rule of construction, exclude every one who is not of white blood."

The Supreme Court of California, as it was constituted in 1854, not satisfied with acquitting Hall because the Chinamen who saw him murder one of their number were negroes, next proceeded to cloud the argument by showing that they were also Indians.

"When Columbus first landed upon the shores of this continent," says the court, "in his attempt to discover a western passage to the Indies, he imagined that he had accomplished the object of his expedition and that the island of San Salvador was one of those islands of the Chinese Sea, lying near the extremity of India, which had been described by navigators."

"Acting upon this hypothesis, and also, perhaps, from the similarity of features and physical conformation, he gave to the islanders the name of Indians, which appellation was universally adopted and extended to the aboriginals of the New World as well as of Asia."

"At the period from which this legislation dates those portions of Asia which include India proper, the Eastern Archipelago and the countries washed by the Chinese waters as far as then known, were denominated the Indies, from which the inhabitants had derived the generic name of Indians."

pled by the Asiatics. The name of Indian, from the time of Columbus to the present day has been used to designate not alone the North American Indian but the whole of the Mongolian race."

The Supreme Court justified its ruling that a Chinaman is both a negro and an Indian in the following language: "Even in a doubtful case we would be impelled to this decision on grounds of public policy. The same rule that would admit them (Chinamen) to testify, would admit them to all the equal rights of citizenship, and we might soon see them at the polls, in the jury box, upon the bench, and in our legislative halls. This is not a speculation which exists in the excited and overheated imagination of the patriot and statesman (meaning thereby the judge who rendered the decision), but it is an actual and present danger. The anomalous spectacle of a distinct people, living in our community, recognizing no laws of this State except through necessity, bringing with them their prejudices and national feuds, in which they indulge in open violation of law, whose mendacity is proverbial, a race of people whose nature has marked as inferior and who are incapable of progress or intellectual development beyond a certain point, as their history has shown; differing in language, opinions, color and physical conformation; between whom and ourselves nature has placed an impassable difference, is now presented, and for them is claimed not only the right to swear away the life of a citizen, but the further privilege of participating with us in administering the affairs of our government."

The defendant, Hall, was thereupon discharged because he was convicted upon the testimony of Indians with queues and negroes with almond eyes. He had indulged only in the harmless pastime of taking into his possession, without legal process, the personal property of a degraded Chinaman, and when the Chinaman remonstrated, Hall had, in a sportive spirit, removed the miserable negro-Indian from the scene of human activities. Whether, after his release, he went into Chinatown and potted a few more Indians and negroes is not stated.

Had it not been for this prompt and statesmanlike decision, rendered by Judge Hugh Murray fifty-seven years ago, we might today have had Ah Sin instead of Johnson for Governor, and Chang Yup instead of Works for Senator.

PHILADELPHIA'S SPEED.

Quakers of Philadelphia are planning a demonstration to voice their protest against the appearance of Sarah Bernhardt in their city. They evidently want to do all in their power to live up to Philadelphia's reputation for speed, but even the swiftness of the Quakers cannot dim the glory of the illustrious Sarah. It is too bad, however, that the narrowness and folly of a handful of fanatics should advertise to the world an insult to the great tragedienne. It is also lamentable that the earliest of American cities should become the least American. Philadelphia is a vivid fulfillment of the prophecy that "the first shall be last."

IS CONSCIENCE DEAD?

The recent theft of $10,000 from a local theatrical concern emphasizes the startling fact not only that dishonesty is rampant in the rising generation, but that the only thing a thief dreads in these times is apprehension. In other words, it isn't his conscience but the fear of imprisonment that worries him if he be worried at all.

As long as the thief of the present day has no reason to believe that anybody knows of his criminality he is as happy as a child at play. In other days a thief always looked worried. Now the thief is the bon vivant, the jolly good fellow, the joy rider and all that sort of thing. What are we coming to and whither are we drifting?

The Burbanking of animals is now suggested, and a Harvard student is attempting something along that line. A green carnation is amusing, but how would a green horse look?

A new dish will be found at the menu of The Times, beginning tomorrow.

Save some of your appetite for the Pink. It will be passed around with the balance of The Times on each day of the week except Saturday and Monday.

The Daily Pink will probably not settle the tariff question, give votes to women, fortify the Coast line, or widen the hobble skirt; but it is hoped that it will contribute a little gaiety and considerable solid information.

We will be disappointed if only men find it interesting. It is the aim of the Pink to publish gingers, snappy portrayals of the life behind the scenes in the theater, the sports arena and on gasoline row.

Those who are interested in sports will be interested in the "Daily Pink"; those who are not will, we hope, be made to forget they are not.

But enough of talk. Taste the pudding.

STREAKS OF WIT.

Chance to Make Something.

"Puck" said James Patten, the multi-millionaire food products plunger of Chicago, "is the secret of success."

"Well," interrupted a brother speculator, "I'll give you a thousand dollars if you'll teach me your method of plucking." (Human Life.)

Tired of Animal Food.

The Doctor: You don't feel any better? Well, how's that? Have you done what I said and taken plenty of animal food?

John: Yes, doctor, but I'll 'ave ter drop it. I managed middlin' well with the oats and maize, and done a bit at split beans; but the chopped hay—that was too much—animal food don't suit me. (London Sketch.)

Taught by Experience. "Pa," said Willie thoughtfully, "I think I know what the minister meant when he said, 'It's more blessed to give than to receive.'"

"Castor oil," [Roseleaf.]

Had to Wait. Aunt Anna asked her little nephew what he would like to give his cousin for his birthday.

"I know," he answered, "but I can't big enough." [Delineator.]

Why He Cried. "Issac," they say that, at most weddings, the participants cry. Did you cry at the wedding of your daughter?"

"Yes." "Why did you cry?" "Because der damn wedding cost me so much." [The Widow.]

UNCLE WALT.

The Post Philosopher. Tolling away when the year is new; tolling away when its journey's through, that is the way we pilgrims do, tolling away, away; tolling away on the windswept hill, doing our tasks in the noisy mill, hoping for rest when the looms are still, tolling away, away. Tolling away at the fertile loom; guiding our ships o'er the spray and foam, saying a prayer for the ones at home, tolling away, away; tolling away in our humble sphere, all through the long, long weary year. Tolling a bit when the night is near, tolling away, away. Tolling away for our daily bread, tolling away when our hopes are dead; tolling away till we go to bed, tolling away, away; tolling away for our wages slim, tolling away when our eyes are dim, tolling away till the evening hymn, tolling away, away. Tolling away! 'Tis our end and aim! Tolling away is the human game, tolling away, away! Here on the vessel the ropes we coil; here on the meadow we plow the soil, thankful that we have the strength to toll, tolling away, away! (Copyright, 1918, by George Matthew Adams.)

THE BOSSIEST BOSS.

[From The Argonaut.] Mr. Lissner's attitude in the present legislative crisis illustrates his ideas and his methods sufficiently to suggest how, as the outside man of Johnson, Lissner & Co., he would use powers so extensive and far-reaching. Even now he assumes to be not the mere adviser, but the master of the Legislature. Give into his hands as the political agent of the executive office all the other powers which Gov. Johnson has demanded, and the whole State government would practically be reduced to Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lissner, sustained by an army of political mercenaries, with perhaps one good friend Chester Rowell as a nominal "associate" for the sake of the moral atmosphere which surrounds his name.

Little did the voters of California think, when in response to the fervid appeals of Mr. Johnson they voted to unseat the old party organization, that they were laying the foundation for a new scheme of political autocracy that for thoroughness both in theory and practice would put the old system to the blush. Who would have imagined that in electing Gov. Johnson, and in giving him Meyer Lissner for his prophet, we were setting up in the politics of California a new system of arbitrary authority so radically advanced as compared with the old?

And what, we wonder, will be the attitude of those elements by whose favor the firm of Johnson, Lissner & Co. has been created? What will be the opinion of those earnest souls who have labored in season and out of season to bring government "closer to the people" when they find that they have put into authority men who find existing conditions too circumscribed for their ambitions and would enforce a system diametrically opposed to the principles upon which they were chosen? One suggestion we have already in the walling of the San Francisco Call. It was the Call, be it remembered, which first suggested, in the interest of its advertising columns, the direct primary. It was the Call which pressed through this device to bring government "close to the people." It was the Call which sponsored Mr. Johnson and supported the campaign in which Mr. Meyer Lissner was the leader. Really, it is not surprising that the Call now sits dejected, tearing its hair, and refusing to be comforted.

The Wrighty of Brookline.

When the Braveheart at Montgomery, Ala., broke up, Aviator Brookline hied to the Pullman ticket office for the purpose of securing a reservation to Paragon.

"Give me a lower berth," requested the aviator, who has soared to a height of more than 7000 feet.

"Have any left," responded the man in the cage. "The best I have is an upper."

"Not for mine," ventured the birdman, as he turned to explain his position to a friend who accompanied him.

"You see," he said, "an upper berth is one too many for me. There's too much risk. Easiest thing in the world to fall out."

Demonstration of Electric Cookers

Shouldn't so delectable a fire as you can see in a demonstration of the Bakereless Cookers.
Demonstrations will be given each day at Parnee-Dohrmann's store. All show you that 15 or 20 minutes is all that is needed to cook the largest roast, boil or stew with a Bakereless Cooker.
Now you how it is possible to prepare a dinner all at the same time and even to freezing the ice cream. Most is the last word in up-to-date cooking and will prove a revelation to fuel bills to the minimum.
Every day this week.

FACTS FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

Olivia Gray

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Cold hands and feet are detrimental to complexion. To retire with cold feet is apt to cause one to lie until one becomes nervous and restless. It is best to take a hot bath to bed, if troubled in this way. When the hands become cold, the face is apt to turn red, which is fatal to one's appearance. The rule cold extremities indicate poor circulation, which should be remedied by exercise or some tonic for the blood.

changing lights and colors of their eyes.

Fashion's Laws.
The shower bouquet for the debutante is quite as important as the bouquet for the bride. It is the fad to match one of the flowers of the bouquet with ribbons for the "show-bud" as a rule the favorite flower of the "bud" herself.

A novelty is shot velvet, which will much worn.

Gray linings for black velvet wraps are now the thing.

Extremely high heels are the rule for evening slippers.

Some of the turbans are combinations of fur and wings.

Empire styles are distinctly "in" again for young women.

Misses' and young women's suits are all severely tailored.

Bordered foulards are among the novelties for the street.

Shoes made entirely of velvet are in excellent style for the street.

Tunic ideas are largely represented in the midwinter tea-gowns.

Nearly all of this year's hats are being trimmed largely at the back.

While the hobbie idea has passed, the narrow width remains.

WOMEN'S WORK.
WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.
A club woman writes me as follows:

"I notice by the morning Times that your club report was a missionary meeting."

Sounds rather sarcastic, doesn't it? Now that woman ought to read carefully the head lines which adorn this department and which distinctly say "Women's Work."

The fact that a good deal of work is done by women identified with church and missionary societies rather than clubs, speaks eloquently for itself.

It may be well to state right here, for the enlightenment of the woman above quoted and others, if there be such, who have the impression that this department is designed solely and exclusively for a record of the doings of women's clubs, that such is not the case. At all times the women who are "doing things," whether in or out of clubs, will be given attention.

As to the particular case in point alluded to by my correspondent, isn't it infinitely more worth while to chronicle the fact that an army of 12,000 women on this Pacific Coast is supporting thirteen medical and educational missionaries, has raised and expended for such purposes thousands of dollars during the past three months, and is engaged in the laudable work of providing needed supplies for noble women who are half price on the battlefield doing the world's work, isn't this of more importance, I ask, than to tell about a pink tea or a club luncheon?

Daughters of American Revolution.
The monthly luncheon introduced by Mrs. W. W. Stilson, State Regent of the D.A.R., seem to have struck a popular chord. The luncheon, a long list of acceptances having been received for tomorrow's function which will be designated as Long Beach Day.

Short address will be given by Miss Helen Collins, E. N. Strong and F. A. Howe. These luncheons are held at Christopher's and I understand that Mrs. C. W. Fairbank, wife of the ex-territorial President, is to be the honored guest at the February function.

Fairbanks is the honorary president-general of the National society and is scheduled for an address. The State Regent considers these luncheons a fine medium for promoting sociability and a great convenience for announcing State and national work. She attributes the success of the project largely to the chairing Mrs. Harry Purdon, and her assistants.

She Objects.
A well-known woman rises up to strenuously object to the proposition to rob the store in its natural beauty by making "landscape artistry as a part of the store in accurate architecture."

Mrs. C. W. Fairbank, wife of the ex-territorial President, is to be the honored guest at the February function.

Their Romance in a "Want" Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Judson Odell, brought together by his "liner" in The Times for a demonstrator. He made her his bride instead of his employee.

"LINER" BRIDE.

factory in the usual manner is not a subject for public inquiry. It did not happen in that way and that is enough for the public to know. The plan for private instruction was perhaps a failure as business goes, for on the third visit Odell decided that the lady's hands were much too fine and soft for work of the kind proposed and he frankly told her so. She was astonished, as women always are when personalities are broached and she asked a question, as a woman sometimes will. "Not work," she said, "after I have learned so well." The factory owner shook his head in strong negation. "It will never, never do," he said. "I am 50 years old and I know. Besides I own the business and what I say goes. The only way you can get into this company is to marry the head of the concern."

"I wanted to work most awfully," she said.

"And I want to marry you as badly, or worse," he answered.

AIR OF FINALITY.
He put it with such an air of finality that there was really nothing else to be done about it. She would lose her three reasons if she did not do as he requested, and it is not wise to waste one's time when it can be helped. She kept him in a cruel and terrible suspense through many anxious days, and almost six weeks elapsed from the day of their meeting before she actually married him. He was very, very busy moving his factory from Glen-dora, where his father owns a bank, and it was perhaps this fact which made him patient for so long.

By December 20 the factory had been moved to the city and offices had been established. Then Odell told the lady that he would not wait another minute, and they were married that very night. After a dinner alone at the Alexandria they went to No. 831 South Grand-avenue, and still reside there. They said nothing about their happiness to their friends, but a clever nephew of Odell frequented the pleasant secret out. Odell is the inventor of two typewriting machines, which he manufactured for some years in Chicago.

D. W. Potter and wife are at the Lankershim for the remainder of the winter. Potter was in years past a famous evangelist, but has retired entirely from that field of work to lead the simple life in a country home near Chicago.

BOY WANTS HIS MOTHER.
A handsomely dressed lad about 4 years old is in the matron's department of the City Jail awaiting his parents. The boy was picked up on South Flower street, between Third and Fourth streets, yesterday by pedestrians, who found him crying pitifully. Patrolman Luth questioned the boy, but could neither learn who he is or where he lives. The little fellow begged pitifully to be taken home, but when picked up by the patrolman and carried to the Central Station, he went to sleep in the officer's arms.

OLD-FASHIONED CONVENTIONS.
Pasadena. Jan. 11.—A plan has been proposed which many consider is most satisfactory way out of the present mayoralty candidate muddle, and that is to call an old-fashioned city convention where the most popular candidates would be open to the suggestion has gained much favor among many of the prominent business men of the city and it is believed will be generally popular if it is properly handled before the public.

Several Plans Proposed, But None Are Satisfactory.
The plan suggested for getting the convention in working order is to call a general mass meeting of the citizens of the city at which meeting a resolution be adopted calling for a city convention to be composed of twenty-five delegates from each of the city wards. Another plan is to circulate petitions calling for the ward primaries or conventions to select the candidates. It is considered essential as to whether the ward delegates be selected in an open meeting or by ballot in an old-fashioned caucus.

BURGLARY CHARGE.
Gus Sture, a young man, was arrested at Alamitos Bay this afternoon and will be charged with burglary. During the past month several small burglaries have occurred at Alamitos Bay and Naples, and it is alleged that they have been traced to Sture, who has been traced to the beach, where a constable has gone to recover them.

Owners and operators of motion picture theatres throughout Southern California will meet in Long Beach January 21-February 1 for permanent organization. The object is to adopt a system of film using that will not interfere with the theatre as two or more theaters in one city.

J. E. Elby, charged with an attempt to murder P. M. Gillmore, was arraigned in the Los Angeles Superior court this morning and his preliminary hearing set for Thursday morning. His bond was fixed at $200. His victim is improving nicely and the reputation of his arm has been avoided.

NEWS BRIEFS.
The picture film taken two weeks ago of the fire department in action was a success, and the developed films are on route here from San Francisco. They are the first product of a company located in Long Beach and will be given a private exhibition some night this week to invited guests.

Patrolman Sam Adair, who was badly injured on New Year's day, when he collided with an auto, while riding his motorcycle, has so far recovered as to be able to report for duty today.

The body of Fred Laver, the young electrician killed by a live wire at El Condado Saturday, was brought here for burial today. Young Laver was a native of Missouri and 22 years of age. All of his relatives live in Long Beach.

Thomas Sheldon, the insane man who was caught in Hotel Virginia a week ago, and who claimed to be Mayor Alexander, slipped away from his wife Saturday and came at once to the beach. He was picked up last night and returned to the city.

Sheldon was turned over to his wife by the Lunacy Commission on condition that he be taken to the city and that she moving the present discriminatory rates.

The contract was let today for the 500,000 feet of lumber required in the construction of the Thompson scenic railway, now in course of building on the beach, front from Kenney street to Raymond avenue, South Santa Monica. The structure will have a frontage of 500 feet on the broad walk and will be located twenty-three feet west of the walk, thus extending the wide plaza that distance and practically making an addition of 500 feet to the business frontage of the beach. The front of the new amusement attraction will be of cement stucco, with ornamental entrances.

Larry Darby has been elected headmaster of the High School, succeeding Frank Long, who left school last week to become a benedict. Long succeeded Darby two years ago when the latter temporarily left school.

The directors of the State Bank have elected as officers: A. M. Goodhue, president; T. A. Stephens and P. J. Curtis, vice-presidents; W. J. Morrison, cashier. Former residents of Connecticut will meet this week to organize a Nutmeg Society.

ings County Board of Educa-
Adopts a New Plan of Student
Sanitation Which Is Believed
Will Do Away With Many of Old Disadvantages.

Special Correspondence of The Times.
ANFORD, Jan. 16.—Truly miracular escape of Tony Elfringe, Saturday afternoon, when he was struck by automobile driven by John Hays enroute while riding his bicycle the corner of Seventh and Irwin streets. The boy's wheel was demolished he was thrown hard to the pavement, one wheel of his heavy car passing over his body. He was taken to a by drug store, where it was discovered that he was not seriously injured. The accident occurred as Hays led the corner, and eye witnesses said that he was responsible.

NEW PLAN.
A Kings county Board of Educa-has decided upon a plan of exam-prospective grammar school graduates given at the close of the year by the board instead of by teachers. The new plan places responsibility for qualifications of graduates upon the board members and upon the board. Each board member is given a certain number of schools to visit each term, and each district. On these trips the board members will examine the daily work of the teachers and will be and pupils will be recommended graduation upon these reports.
The board members will be examined upon these reports. The examination has been strenuously proposed against for some time, as being mental to the health of the pupils,
and to the worry and cramming prevalent. It also because pupils when taking them were so tired that they were not able to do best work.

After giving him a severe arraignment, Police Judge Rose sent E. E.
Hawkins to jail for ninety days yesterday morning. Though sentenced under a complaint charging disturbing the peace, the real accusation against Hawkins was brutally beating his wife.

ined in the Central Jail and as stated
this has of necessity been discontinued.

A large number of the men complete their sentences this morning and will be released, making room for the ones who will appear in court today.

The police authorities believe, however, in spite of the present conditions that the jail capacity is sufficient and that the present situation is due to an abnormal condition which will pass with the return of better weather in the North and East.

WOMAN DISCHARGED.
BEER BOUGHT FOR OFFICERS.
Because it was not shown that the woman kept a supply of liquor in her house for general sale, Police Judge
Rose yesterday afternoon released Mrs.
C. Christ, who conducts a rooming-house on South Main street. She was charged with violating the liquor ordinance.

Two police officers appeared against the woman and exhibited bottles of liquor which they said they had purchased in the house. Mrs. Christ declared that the liquor purchased by the officers had been brought in from a nearby saloon at their request. It was charged in the house. Mrs. Christ declared that it must be shown that a supply of liquor is kept in houses for general sale in order to convict.

IN TROUBLE.
JOY RIDING IS CHARGED.
A complaint charging Sam Roten with "joy-riding" was issued by Deputy District Attorney Keetch yesterday afternoon and filed in Police Judge Rose's court.

Roten is charged with breaking two automobiles belonging to J. F. Hart, who conducts a garage at Ninth and Los Angeles streets. According to the complaint, Roten went to the garage
last week and told the man in charge that Hart had sent him to drive a machine to the Santa Fe station.

A car was given Roten and he returned a short time later and said that the car had broken down and that he needed another. This time an excellent limousine was given him and it was also broken. Hart says the repairs made on the machine amounted to about $50, and that he did not instruct Roten to take the machine from the garage. Roten was formerly employed by Hart.

WIFE-BEATER JAILED.
WOMAN IS NOT IN COURT.
After giving him a severe arraign-
ment, Police Judge Rose sent E. E.
Hawkins to jail for ninety days yesterday morning. Though sentenced
under a complaint charging disturbing the peace, the real accusation
against Hawkins was brutally beating his wife.

Hawkins was arrested early Sunday morning, but Mrs. Hawkins, who was brutally beaten and knocked insensible by her husband, refused to appear against him in court. It was said that though still suffering acutely from the pounding, she was ready to go to the courtroom and appear in her husband's behalf.

"That is something I am going to avoid," said Police Judge Rose, when Hawkins said that his wife was ready to appear to help him out.
"There are too many women with dispositions like that. For a big 250-pound man like you beating a little woman is a disgrace. Any of those blows you struck her might have ended her life. Unless you stop it you will find yourself in the penitentiary before long."

STEALS WATER.
MAKES FORTUNATE ERROR.
The police courts have no claim on William Johnson despite the fact that his intention was to make a getaway with three quarts of fine grape brandy.
William took what he believed was brandy, but when he lifted one of the bottles to his lips and took a long deep draught, he discovered it was colored water intended to form part of a window display.

The negro was strolling along North Main street yesterday morning when his eye caught the gleam in front of the wine store. He slowly stole up to the rear-colored bottles and with a sweep of his hand snatched three of them and ran.

Around the corner Johnson takes them and stops at a saloon. He extracted a cork, lifted the bottle to his mouth and drank. And he is a poor substitute for brandy, and after taking a good big swallow,
William cared little what became of him.
Immediately it was easy for the officer to lead him to the Central Police Station.

Deputy District Attorney Hill was asked to issue a complaint charging him with petty larceny, but when the attorney snuffed at the contents of the bottle he declared it would be highly improper to issue a complaint against anyone who took anything that smelled like that.

Police Judge Rose was of the same opinion, and Johnson was released.

One Woman Fined.
Edna Russell, arrested Saturday night in the raid made by the police upon questionable houses, was fined $15 by Police Judge Rose late yesterday afternoon. She was the only one of the half-dozen women arrested at the time to appear in Police Court yesterday. The others forfeited bail of $25 each.

Chinese Fined.
Ill Lee the Chinaman arrested in a police raid Saturday night, pleaded guilty to conducting a lottery yesterday morning in Police Court. He was fined $20. Wong Quong, arrested at the same time in the room where the drawing was taking place, paid a fine of $25.

Two Speeders in Court.
S. R. Dixon was fined $25 yesterday morning in Police Court for exceeding the speed limit in an automobile. L. C. Lieber, arrested on a similar charge, asked to have until this morning to consider how he would plead to the charge. He was released on $25 bail.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
El Paso [Texas], Jan. 16. Exclusive dispatch—Jockey Murphy, a negro, who was suspended Sunday afternoon for his ragged ride on Harrigan, is suspected of setting fire to barns at the Juarez track Sunday night and Mexican authorities are investigating.
The fire broke out in two places and is known to have been incendiary. One horse was incinerated and irrigator was so badly burned that he will not run again.
Harrigan's barn adjoined irrigator's.

One of the largest runs of yellowtail that ever swept into the bay at Redondo came to an end yesterday morning, when a gay young herd of seals and dolphins from the blue waters of Catalina Isle dashed in among the game fish and put them to rout.
Sunday the run was at its height and every boat, launch and yawl was pressed into service and the piers at Redondo were literally black with fishermen and sight-seeing tourists.
It is estimated that 2000 pounds of yellowtail were caught at Pier No. 1 at Redondo Sunday afternoon. There was a corresponding number of pounds of fish caught at the other two piers near by.
The prize catch of the day is thought to have been made by the gasoline launch "Alpha" of the Southern California Fish Company out of San Pedro. The launch secured fifty tons of yellowtail before returning from about one mile out.
At the same time as the yellowtail were running so freely a tremendous run of sardines began. The waters surrounding Redondo were literally alive with the writhing, squirming little fish. They were everywhere and it became tame sport to catch them. Nets were lowered and raised as fast as strong men could handle them. They could be pulled out of the water a veritable mass of sardines. The fishermen would shake the fish as free as possible from the nets and return the nets again to the water, while they still contained hundreds of pounds of the little fish.
Tourists who crowded the wharves could see millions of the little fish in the clear water and the sight was one long to be remembered. Boys armed with homemade nets would dip them into the water and bring them up almost bursting with the mass of fish they contained.
SEINE SARDINES.
A great quantity of the sardines caught were rushed to the Los Angeles markets while yet fresh, but the greater portion was sent to the various canneries and packed for future use.

Yesterday morning a crowd of enthusiastic anglers went to Redondo at an early hour to participate in the wonderful fishing, which they expected to last over another day. Instead of the multitude of yellowtail they saw the little harbor dotted here and there with leaping black forms of seals.
There were hundreds of them and they drove the yellowtail into deep water in an hour or so. At times the water was fairly boiling with the rush of the seals and a few dolphins, as they came to the surface.
While the fishing was not good, the sport to the onlookers was never better. It was a fishing match on a large scale, with the seals and dolphins acting as fishermen.
The seals are thought to have followed in the wake of the yellowtail from their usual haunts around Catalina Island, and it is expected that after remaining at Redondo a few days they will again disappear toward Catalina.
Yesterday the seals became so frolicsome after their feast of yellowtail that they came into the shallow water and seemed at times about to come out of the water onto the beach.
The presence of such great numbers of sardines brought with them a vast flock of pelicans, which infested the waters around Redondo throughout the day. These pelicans together with the seals, dolphins, sardines and yellowtail, combined to form an aquarium of the entire bay around Redondo.
The run of sardines is expected to last several days, and the fishing companies say that if they have luck they will secure the largest catch of sardines in their history.

JEFF PLOTTING REVENGE WITH NEW SPACE EATER.
Barney Oldfield Puts Bug in Jim's Bonnet and Speed Mania Is Hatched—Locomotive Forty Horsepower Chosen as Vehicle of Conquest—Mrs. Jeffries Wears That Worried Look.
WELL, Jack Johnson hasn't "got anything" on Jim Jeffries, after all. Jeffries is about to become a speed king, himself.
Enthusied by his friend, Barney Oldfield, Jim has chosen one of the fastest stock cars in the market. It is scheduled to arrive some day this week and Chances is in a fever of anticipation.
Jim has chosen a Locomobile for his speed eater. His friend Barney drives a Benz, and his chum, Eddie Maier, has a flock of Peerless scooters. Another of his cronies, Roger Stearns, drives a Ford; Jack Klipper, his partner, drives another car.
But Jim could have none of them. He has a feeling that a Locomobile carries a "jinx" for the colored race. Furthermore, he already owns one Locomobile and has learned to drive it a little.
Jim caught the speed fever from Oldfield. For about two months the two have been every day on the street in Barney's long, low, piratical-looking car. He has driven with Barney in two races to the terror of his wife and family. It seems as though nothing in life is attractive any more to Jimma de Jeff, except sitting with his arm around Barney's shoulders and watching the atmosphere go by in a vague blur of motion.
"Jim," said Barney the other day when the wheels happened to touch

GREAT RESPECT FOR HIS PUNCH.
DANNY WEBSTER HAILS YOUNG RIVERS AS CHAMPION.
Battle Plan Was to Smother Opponent With Punches and "Get His Goat" in First Few Minutes. But Youngster Stood His Ground. Victor Banished to Ranch.
Nearly every other sporting man in Los Angeles has expressed his expert opinion on the possibility of Young Rivers becoming a world champion.
Except the one man best qualified to judge, this man is Danny Webster. Last night he announced his decision.
Broken in purse and body and spirit, Danny came limping down the "Prize Fighters' Promenade" on Spring street yesterday.
The fight fans there assembled bestowed upon him the customary consolation prize: congratulations for the gameness with which he endured his beating at the hands of Young Rivers last Saturday.
"I made a worse showing than I need have made," said Danny mournfully. "I didn't know how good he was. The boy is a wonder. I believe he has the championship stuff in him. He has everything, the punch, and the strength and cleverness."
"I admit that I was astonished when we came together for the first time in the fight Saturday. I thought I could rush out from my corner and simply sweep him off his feet. I knew he was young and green and didn't know much about the game. I thought I could confuse him with a big rush when the first going sounded and another him with punches."
"With my long experience in the ring I thought it would be all over before the boy found out what was doing."
"Well," continued Danny, with a sigh. "He was too strong and too clever. The way that boy can hit is like having a hod of bricks fall on top of you. He can hit with either hand, and from any position."
"There was no comparison between the punch I got from him Saturday and what I got from Ad Wolgast when I fought him."
"Rivers can hit harder than Wolgast. Much harder."
What Danny says is taken by the fight fans with this grain of salt—that he is anxious to have Rivers climb as high up the pugilistic ladder as possible. If Rivers proves himself to be a champion, Webster will be able to get more fight dates, for it is no discredit to be put out by a budding world champion.
If, on the other hand, Rivers turns out to be a false alarm, it will be the end of the fight career of Webster.
TO HIS CART TAILS.
In the circumstances, Rivers' strongest booster may be said to be the boy he knocked out last Saturday.
"I went broke" on the fight. He was so sure of winning that he bet all the money he could rake and scrape on himself. Uncle Tom McCarey financially, anyhow, as the result of his failure in the restaurant business. It is said that he has nothing to show for his long fight career.
Rivers was shipped out of temptation's way. Uncle Tom McCarey banished him to a ranch near Newhall, where Rivers's aunt lives.
If the name of Rivers's aunt and hostess were known, a sporting mystery would be cleared up. No one knows who Rivers really is. He is supposed to belong to one of the old Spanish families, and to be a young descendant of ancient and high degree. His personality is made mysterious by suggestions of old Spanish grants, proud families, etc., etc.
When pressed for his real name, the boy says he is one of the Rivers family. His intimates say this is not so.

WALDO THROOP IS IN TROUBLE WITH U.S.C. FACULTY.
Alleged Fraternity Influence Prejudice Action Against Him and Proposes to Go to Stanford if Muddle Is Not Cleared Up—Trip to New Orleans Is Blamed.
Track enthusiasts at the University of Southern California are awaiting the results of the faculty decision in regard to the eligibility of Waldo Throop, the crack "varley" sprinter with a great deal of uneasiness.
Throop has been out of school several days. It is claimed, on account of sickness, and as he has a doctor's certificate, there seem to be no grounds for declaring him ineligible for spring track work.
Throop claims, however, that the school faculty to disqualify him because his work was not up to a standard before he quit school. He prior to that time he was on the team to New Orleans with the other Southern California athletes at the A.A.U. National meet, and according to version of the matter, he had been in college long enough to make the work that had accumulated during his absence.
Waldo expresses his determination to register at Stanford if the U.S.C. faculty does not allow him to compete in the South. He would be eligible for all meets in the North except the Stanford-Berkeley dual contest, and there are a number of his old high school associates and chums at Stanford, the attractions are pretty strong for him to go up there.
He says "I would sooner remain here in the South if I can compete, if not, I will go to Stanford for next semester."
Throop alleges that the principal position to his good standing at U.S.C. is the college registrar, who, feels, is hardly treating him fairly account of certain fraternity "good dice."

Mr. Wad Finds There's Something New Under the Sun!

BERRY GRABS NEW PLAYERS.

Secures Abbott of Toledo in Waring Trade.

Metsgar on Third Only New Infielder to Date.

Murphy to Be Exchanged for Ahin of Seattle.

Hen Berry says the Los Angeles baseball team will be a real one next year.

Baseball players, however, are like race horses: one can't be sure they are winners until the tickets are paid off.

Berry said yesterday that the new angel team would have three catchers in Hughie Smith, Pinky Grindle and Fred Abbott, the latter being an experienced man, secured from Toledo in a trade for Waring.

Thorsen, Toser, Dehl and Criger of last year's team will form the foundation for the pitching staff and a contract has been sent Jim Agnew who played in the Northwest last year in the same league in which Fiedler James was a star.

Dillon will be on first base unless Berry can find a younger and better man. He has signed a fellow named Conley, a western college man who played in Brawley last year. Howard will be at second and Delmas at short, unless Berry can get a better short stop.

All talk of trading Delmas to the Cardinals of San Francisco is both a trade and a bluff.

Manager of the Hartford team has been offered for third base and Hallinan may be turned back by the St. Louis Americans. Bernard and Daley are to be played in the outfield.

Pitchers Castleton and Klein are to be tried out again while Left Fielder Murphy and Catcher Orendorf will be tried out in the outfield.

A deal is pending now for Murphy to go to Seattle for a year. An infielder of an outfielder and a catcher of a pitcher are to be traded.

Local outfielder, have been signed, and in addition to these players the woods will be literally alive with the kind of good and bad ball players the eastern magnates begin to make the big bushes during spring training time.

Associated Press Night Report.
ACLAND, Jan. 16.—Pay Streak won Charrouse handicap in a drive in Thistle Belle, at Emeryville, for the event was the feature of a race that drew a large attendance. Fine weather prevailed, but the track was heavy.

Jim Caffery proved a surprise in third, leading most of the way. Judge Hopper was called to Douglas by the serious illness of his sister. Martin Nathanson will preside at the fourth race.

J. V. Swetmann and His Canadian Goose, which he killed in the Owens Lake country in a hunting trip of two days.

SWETMANN GETS THE LIMIT IN OWENS RIVER COUNTRY.

THOUSANDS of ducks and very few hunters is the report made by J. V. Swetmann, who returned yesterday from the Owens River Valley, where he killed the limit, twenty-five ducks, in a few hours, and a big Canadian goose. Swetmann was accompanied by W. R. Wurth and C. E. Williams and each member of the party shot as many birds as the law allows.

The party did its hunting about five miles north of Owens Lake, at the end of the aqueduct railroad. There are a number of shallow lagoons along the river at that point, and Swetmann says these were covered with birds at times.

Most of the ducks which they secured were shot between trains. They had to wait a short time after passing a train before the next passenger train came, and the time by waiting out a short distance into the country and shooting the ducks almost as fast as they could load their guns and get up the birds.

They succeeded in bagging a couple of good-sized Canadian geese also, and reported that there were plenty of these. The poor train service in that part of the country is the greatest handicap to hunters, but once in the field there seems to be an abundance of game for everyone.

The frozen ground up in the Owens country most of the winter makes it easy to approach lakes and lagoons over the low, marshy land that surrounds them, and thus greatly simplifies the hunter's troubles. The snow often makes it difficult to get about, but as a rule the hunting is good. The cold weather makes considerable variation from the form of sport near Los Angeles.

Quite a number of the birds were shot on the wing, as the lack of vegetation in the winter time makes it hard to approach the water without alarming them. The flocks were all large, however, and several shots could be fired before they had gotten out of range.

back as fast as he could climb up again before the count ended. He did get up, and he made short work of poor old Peter after that.

FRANK SEES SMOKE.
Frank Erbe fought Jimmy Britt in San Francisco when Britt was just coming into fame. Britt had a really remarkable left body hook. He landed it now and then. Suddenly Frank thought that everything was wrong. He had begun puffing cigar smoke. He seemed to be in a thick fog. Then he realized that Britt's body punch was getting him. His eyes were red and he couldn't tell anything about distance. He made a desperate rush and Britt nailed him again. Frank fell to his hands and knees. His head was clear, but he was paralyzed so that he couldn't move a muscle. As he listened to the count he thought that it looked fake to be counted out in that foolish position. He tried to lie down and roll over, but still he couldn't move. He was counted out, and until his seconds came and lifted him to his feet he stayed there on his knees, rigid as an iron dog on a lawn.

PITZ THOUGHT QUEER.
Johnson, in Philadelphia, threw Bob Fitzsimmons on the back of his neck with a hiplock. As Pitz rose, dazed, Johnson slipped in a terrific uppercut. Pitz went down with his forehead on the floor. Old Bob kicked around, boring the top of his head against the mat. He told me afterward that he thought he was boxed in under the ring trying to force his way up through the plank before the count was over.

Doddie Hanlon knocked Young Corbett down in their first fight. Corbett knocked out, lay on his face with his eyes open. He was dreaming that he sat on the beach watching the moon as it slowly rose above the horizon. It was a big white moon. Then suddenly there was a splash of water on his back and he came to and suddenly realized that the moon he was watching was just the white canvas of his forehead.

There was Jack Monroe, who was matched with Peter Maher when he first came East. Peter just got in one good wallop, and it was of the kind that made him famous. Monroe half turned and fell on his face. He pulled his head back and with his forehead on the canvas.

Battling Nelson's experiences during the knockdowns in his recent fight with Owen Moran remind me of tales I have heard from other fighters.

There was Jack Monroe, who was matched with Peter Maher when he first came East. Peter just got in one good wallop, and it was of the kind that made him famous. Monroe half turned and fell on his face. He pulled his head back and with his forehead on the canvas.

OUTLAWS.

ney Oldfield and was willing to do what he could to help the meet.

HIG JIM BARRED.

Jim Jeffries of course joined the outlaws when he wanted to ride with Barney in the "Hillman" Benz. He was whirled around the track at terrific speed and now must be barred from driving his Locomobile in anything but an outlaw meet. Jim cares not. He had his fun and is willing, he says, to pay the piper.

How about the automobile dealers who took part in the meet? This is another side to the situation. Men who have not figured as outlaws before are now in the meshes. Their cases have been taken up by the A. A. A. and they are down and out—some of them—for a year.

E. Roger Stearns drove a Velle once around the course after the meet was over. He is an outlaw just the same. What his particular offense was it is hard to explain. Perhaps he fell under the ban because he dared attend the meet. At any rate Stearns is disqualified for a year for doing nothing.

There is no more enthusiastic driver than Stearns. He has taken part in the Motordrome meets and has driven the Ford in several races. Now he must keep off the boards. He can race must keep off the boards. He can race must keep off the boards. He can race must keep off the boards.

Fred Williams, the Petrol agent, becomes an outlaw also. He can show cause. On Saturday Williams drove the friction-transmission car in several races. He knew what was coming and he was not prepared to take place at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

The series of three games will decide the championship of the organization which represents Southern California. The second game will be played at Long Beach, and the battleground of the third is to be decided by flipping a coin.

Shanahan is the Y.M.C.A. pitcher. He is credited with having an average of two strikeouts to an inning for every game played.

DIE IN THEIR BALLOON.
BERLIN, Jan. 16.—The German balloon Hildebrand, which had been missing since its ascent at Scharnhorst, on December 29, was found in a lake in Pomerania province, Prussia, today. The bodies of both aeronauts were in the gondola.

DOWN AND OUT.
Jimmy Ryall is down and out as far as the A. A. A. is concerned. Jimmy had only just been reinstated and the ink on the signature of his card was scarcely dry before he drove the Knox against Ben Kercher in the outlaw meet.

The class which Ryall showed on Sunday places him among the top-notchers, but he can only race with outlaws. This is a shame as Jimmy has entered the game at a time when he could shine to advantage. He has no chance to drive at the Motordrome provided the A. A. A. takes summary action on his case. Here is another good fellow who is out of the sport for a time until Barney comes back for another race meet.

When Oldfield is ready to race again a number of those who are now outlaws will be ready to ride with him.

TO LEVEL DIAMONDS.
Better Bunting If Pitcher's Box Is Not Elevated, Says Garry Herrmann of the Reds.

Associated Press Day Report.
CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—That the "turtleback" diamond is soon to be a thing of the past in organized baseball, is the statement made by Herrmann of the Cincinnati Reds.

"We shall bring the matter to the attention of the National League at the February meeting and hope at that time to secure its consent to allow us to employ an official surveyor and to have on the diamonds perfectly smooth," said Herrmann.

"It is possible for a pitcher to hold his pitching to a safe degree of certainty when he is eighteen inches above the batter."

"When I came to Cincinnati I found Becher, Mitchell and McLean batting only fairly. I examined the grounds and saw they were batting up hill against the pitcher and that the twirlers always had an unfair advantage. Therefore I sent for a surveyor and we got the diamond perfectly level, since which time not only Becher, Mitchell and McLean, but other players as well could hit much better. I shall see that we use canvas coverings and therefore there will be no need to have the pitcher's box higher than the rest of the diamond in order to shed the rain."

Norman W. Church is back from the East. He says things are humming in the automobile industry.

Harry Lord is going to the Motordrome races Sunday. He wants to see the Fiat start.

Oscar Werner has been celebrating the victory of the Simplex. He is keeping open house at the Golden State Garage this week.

Ralph de Palma goes to bed every night at 9 o'clock and takes a cold water bath every morning. No wonder he wins.

A. M. Young has lost that flaming red hat. He says the lid suited his complexion, but he was obliged to keep his promise. The man who purchased the green Thomas-Tyler has the cap.

HE DEFENDS THE GOAL.

Sanderson One of Best Soccer Players in the South and Leads Toward Clan Cameron.

W. W. Sanderson, the Clan Cameron goal keeper, ranks as one of the best players in the local soccer league. He has been playing with a losing team all season and therefore has had more chance to distinguish himself in individual work than any of the other players, so that it would be difficult to compare his playing with that of the other goal-keepers, but it is doubtful if any of them could have defended the position better than he.

Sanderson played with the Lawrence (Kan.) High School in both Intercollegiate and Rugby football, so that he is strictly an American player. Most of the other members of the local teams are from the British Isles, and claim a superior knowledge of the game on account of experience in the old country.

For punting, and in fact, every department of the kicking game, Sanderson has proved a star, and has distinguished himself time after time in the local games by long return punts to the middle of the field when a goal seemed inevitable.

He likes the English contest much better than the American form of football, as he claims it is just as good training and much less dangerous.

CROMWELL'S VARSITY SQUAD'S TRACK TRYOUT.

Prospects at U.S.C. Not Bright, But Much is Expected of New Men Who Are to Get First Chance to Show Saturday—Coach Holds Watch in Secret Practice.

Coach Cromwell at the University of Southern California will have his first opportunity to get a definite line on the track material next Saturday when the university team is scheduled to meet the Long Beach High School on the latter's field.

This will be the first meet of the season with an outside team and will be important for that reason. Long Beach will have very little chance of winning against the veteran "varsity" athletes, but Cromwell has had no chance so far to get a line on his new material, and he is hoping that the contest will bring out some likely men among the freshmen.

The track prospects at the Methodist college are not very bright at present with several of the last year men ineligible and unless some good point winners are developed among the first year men, the S. C. track enthusiasts may have to be satisfied with a second or third place in the conference this year.

Coach Cromwell is working hard with the men who are out and keeping an accurate record of the time made by each of them. He keeps these marks strictly to himself, however, so that the men themselves do not know what they are doing. It is very possible that good records have been made already by some of the candidates, but the coach goes about with the same mysterious smile he always wears. No one has been able to get any definite information as to the exact showing made by several of the men who had good high school records and were expected to prove valuable assets to the university track squad.

The feature of the Long Beach meet will likely be the half-mile race between Dodd, the fast high school 889 man, and Walton, who is the best middle distance runner on the "varsity" squad this season. The Long Beach boy has several good high school records which equal the best showing that has been made by the college athlete. Coach Cromwell says his protégé will win easily, but those who have seen the Long Beach athlete running this year figure that the chances are about even.

McFadden Plans Trap-Shooters' Paradise on North Pomona Orange Orchard and Makes Big Hit.

With the completion of the Foothills boulevard, which promises to be one of the most popular roadways in Southern California, Austin McFadden, factory representative for the Cutting car in California, and who is incidentally a keen trap-shooter, is in his element as the highway takes him to his Pomona ranch which is ideal for the building of a trap-shooters' paradise.

On his large orange orchard at Pomona McFadden plans to establish a trap. He has extended an invitation to all automobile men who can shoot to take a drive out to the Pomona preserve where there are plenty of birds which need to be smashed.

That seat may be added to the sport McFadden proposes to offer a silver trophy for the best wing shot among the auto fraternity. A deed of gift, under which the cup is to be shot for, will be instituted by McFadden, who will

Sporting Comment.

California Winter Baseball.

The wonderful climate of Southern California is demonstrated to the sporting fraternity throughout the country by the success of the Winter Baseball League, which has been able to play a schedule of games with only one or two postponements, because of rainy weather. It is never too cold to play baseball here, and ball players, knowing this and wishing to pick up a little "chicken-feed" during the off months, as well as have a good time hunting and fishing, flock to this country in ever-increasing numbers annually. The big advancement of winter baseball has attracted the attention of club owners throughout the country, and has caused the fear in them that California may secure some of their diamond assets. A peculiar state of affairs exists in baseball. Players are held in a sort of penitentiary and are treated in a business way as chattels. No slaves in the old days of the South ever brought as much as Theo. Breitenstein, the $10,000 beauty, a member of the famous "Prezler Battery" or Breitenstein and Peitz. If "Bret" was the first player the transfer of whose contract ever brought that sum, but there have been many more since. As a matter of fact it is voluntary servitude on the part of the players, and the fat salaries smooth over the hint of slavery. When a player is developed by a club, or his services are secured after he has become a star, he is considered an asset of value, because of his drawing powers at the gate and as an intrinsic portion of a winning team. A club owner does not care to part with him or have him injured to come to him in the service of others. Therefore California winter ball is considered detrimental to the interests of club owners as services which should belong to them are used for the gain of others, and proper care is not exercised to safeguard the men's physical conditions. Baseball is a peculiar business. The usefulness of players end when they reach the age of 35, on the average. Their arms become weakened by the constant strain, and their speed and batting eyes become impaired. Club owners figure that if players take part in games in the winter season they stand the chance of taking cold in their arms, of wrenching their muscles, and of not receiving the attention of club managers and trainers. This year managers of various leagues have issued edicts that their men must lay off from now on and take a rest. Next year this order may come earlier, or it may be issued to cover the entire winter. Players say that their services to club owners end when the regular playing season is over, and that they must do something during the winter months to help make a living. In reply club owners say the men draw enough during the playing months to last all year. It is likely that the effect of this argument will be that baseball clubs will pay their men the year around and that in the winter the big league stars must rest. In that case winter baseball in Southern California will be relegated to the semi-professionals and to players of lesser rank.

Organizations Are Hard Hit.

Many economists say that organization is the bane of the day. Since sociologists first discovered the corner-stone of society in the homodie families of the ancients, there has been a tendency to move the masses collectively and in the last half century trend of things has been monopolistic. Sports have not escaped the popular tendency and two of the strongest organizations have been the Amateur Athletic Union and the American Automobile Association. Both have become national despots and influence tremendous control over athletics and automobiles, respectively. As usual Southern California has "started something." A fight is on here against each of these organizations. Two of the strongest colleges have declared intentions of withdrawing from the A.A.U., while "Outlaw" Barney Oldfield gave a meet and is gathering additions to his band here. Organization is a good thing, but humans are bound to err whether as individuals or collectively. Oldfield's alleged offense against the A.A.A. has never been quite clearly defined. Membership card was issued to Jack Johnson, and a date was set for Oldfield to race him. Then the A.A.A. ruled Johnson out, the cause never being fully explained. Oldfield kept his date, and was outlawed. There must have been something more than "a nigger in the woodpile." Oldfield's success as an outlaw may prove a boomcrang to the A.A.A. In amateur athletics the A.A.U. made rulings at an inauspicious moment and thereby angered several colleges. Now these institutions believe they are better fitted to handle their own athletics than the A.A.U. They expect to become independent. These two movements may be the wedge to break the power of the big associations and declare for independence or new regimes of power.

Abe Attell's Tactics.

The foxy Hebrew featherweight champion, Abe Attell, is the Von Moltke of pugilism. A famous conundrum propounds thusly: What is the difference between a clock and Gen. Von Moltke? Answer: A clock goes tick-tack; and Von Moltke goes tick-tick. So is Abe Attell doing tactics. Recently special dispatches said Patsy Kline had licked Attell to a standstill in New York; Associated Press dispatches recounted that Attell had outpointed Kline. It has ever been this uncertainty of a victory which has been Attell's stock in trade. The Hebrew has been the busiest boxer in pugilism, and has always been able to make matches because fighters believe they will be able to win fame by getting a draw with him. Attell stalls fight after fight until the public gets the notion that he is going stale, and is about all in. Then a near-champion is foolish enough to make a match for a real fight and the boxing promoters come forward generously, and the public pays big money. Then Attell fairly smother his opponent's hope and is proclaimed the world's greatest boxer, which he is. After a short rest Attell goes through the same tactics again. Critics have very little doubt but that Attell would make a monkey of Joe Rivers, who defeated Danny Webster, Saturday. But it is better than an even bet that if they met here Rivers would be able to get a draw with Attell in the first engagement. Then of course there would be a tremendous house for the second performance—and curtains for Rivers. Able certainly is the Tick-tick Kid.

Rivers's Promising Career.

Joe Rivers, the young Mexican who gave Danny Webster the beating of his life at Vernon, Saturday, proved that he is both a boxer and a fighter of great promise; but he yet has to show that he has the sense to wear his honors modestly and not permit excesses of living to get the better of his physique, as have been the case with so many fighters, or to allow flattery and poor advice to turn his head. Rivers should always bear in mind the career of that other great Mexican fighter, Aurelio Herrera who could have been lightweight champion had he let booze alone. Then he may be defeated by the latest adversary, Webster. Danny made two ill-starred matches which were the cause of his downfall; he weakened himself by doing 115 pounds for Monte Attell, and he took on Ad Wolgast, the best in the business, at a weight exceeding his own. He did fairly well with Attell, but his stamina was sapped; he was game with Wolgast, but he was outmatched. Rivers is young and is short of experience. Much will depend on his match-making in the next year. He should not rush after Abe Attell in an earnest effort to lift the championship; nor should he tackle hard-hitting, tough trial horses, a victory over whom counts for little, while a defeat at their hands is not only likely because of a lucky punch, but is also pugilistic suicide. Keep your noodle, young fellow, and climb slowly.

Upbuilding of Aviation.

Since the death of Arch Hoxey at Dominguez there has been considerable speculation as to the probable effect on the sport. Many profess to believe that aviation is doomed to be classed with circus stunts and will never become a popular sport. It appears, however, that the effect is just the other way and that circus features will be eliminated, and that aviation will be put on its own merits. Southern California amateurs are not a whit discouraged, and there are evidences that men of money are contemplating entrance into the flying game. The art of flying is yet in its infancy and when methods of stabilization have been effected there seems to be no reason why it cannot become a big factor in the life of the affairs of Southern California, not only of the world. Europe is not discouraged by the accidents, and aviation is common there among a large number of persons. Americans will stick to the game.

Protecting the Deer.

Hunters say that there are a great many more deer than stages in the mountains and that the long deer season serves to thin out the males and thus lessen propagation. The movement to protect deer for a term of years is becoming stronger and it is probable that by the time another Legislature sits a bill will be presented to that effect. In this Legislature there is likely to be passed a bill shortening the season, but no drastic action is expected until a later date.

TO SETTLE IN PEACE.

Style of Putter to Be Agreed Upon and Thrucland War is to Be Averted.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The peaceful settlement by the United States Golf Association at the annual meeting here Saturday night of the question relating to the style of putter, leading golfers say will have great bearing on the meeting of the Western Golf Association here next Saturday.

While the Executive Committee which was given charge of the framing of the note interpreting the rule relating to clubs of the mallet head type, was instructed not to bar the Schenck putter, this does not mean that the rules made by St. Andrews will not be followed by the United States Golf Association to show its allegiance to the Scotch. The delegates intend the executives to submit the proposed movey club to St. Andrews for criticism and suggestions.

This apparently settles all war talk for the time being. It is said the demands of the putters, introduced at the last meeting of the W.G.A. and at that time held over, will be brought up as a matter of business, but it is not thought there will be any attempt to make to extend the territory of the W.G.A.

I had no hand at all to pick it up. "Don't you realize," I said, "that decent domesticity demands you in this day and age—in order to become famous you must at least have had two divorces with a co-respondent action pending?"

"Possibly," he returned, "but if that's the price of fame, I'll remain silent and obscure. What do you say?"

Bloody Murder. LANGFORD TO MEET JOHNSON.

Men to Fight in Philadelphia Within Six Weeks.

Big Black Is in Fine Shape for Short Bout.

Wants to Bet He Can Put Out Sam in Six Rounds.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of Jack Johnson's sweeping victory over Tommy Langford, the champion of the world, the fight between the two men is now being arranged for a purpose of $10,000, the champion has been named to meet Sam Langford here within the next six weeks.

Joe Woodman of Boston, Langford's manager, was at the Wilson Hotel last night when Johnson issued his def and Jack O'Brien, who runs the new club, probably the greatest fighting pavilion in the world, immediately got busy arranging the details of the match.

With the assistance of his millionaire friend "Tony" Biddle, he immediately assured Johnson and Woodman that the club would guarantee the purse.

While it has not been given officially it is understood Johnson also wishes to wager $10,000 on the side that he will put out the "Boston Tar Baby" inside of the six-round limit.

O'Brien demanded a $250 deposit from each man as a guarantee for appearance at the ring and it is understood here that Woodman has immediately for Boston to get the money.

Before leaving the city Johnson declared he was in splendid shape for a short bout and could enter the ring at almost any moment without preliminary training.

AMATEUR NOTES.

Try-outs for an indoor meet soon to be held at the Y.M.C.A. are to be conducted tomorrow. It will be limited to members only.

A junior gymnasium club has been formed at Los Angeles High. The purpose of it is to instruct the fellows in feats more difficult than those included in the regular gymnasium course.

Polytechnic High will compete in a track meet to be held at the Hollywood High School athletic field, February 11.

Noah Allen was elected captain of the Manual Arts High School team for next season. Allen formerly attended L.A.

L.A. will lose several of its veteran football men next June, when Crowell, Clarke, McClure, Dorn, Wilson, Hodges and Blades graduate. Coach Noble, however, is confident of another championship team.

Los Angeles High may soon have its own athletic field. Plans for the removal of the burial grounds back of the school are now being carried out by City Sexton Humphries and the grounds are expected to be converted into a practice field.

Coach Ralph C. Noble is still on a hunt for a practice grounds. Fiesta Park may be secured for that purpose. Boyard field is being used meantime.

Pricipal Dunne of Poly said the athletic ban has not been removed there.

William McFie, a candidate for L.A.'s track team, at practice, threw the discus 128 feet. It was regarded as an unusual feat, since 104 feet was the record at the Southern California meet, last season. McFie is also a shot putter and took second place in the meet.

North, a new man at L.A., is showing fine form at the high hurdles. An intercollegiate track meet is to be held at Los Angeles High School on the 4th of February.

Hollywood High will be represented in an intercollegiate field meet to be held February 11.

Sheldon, the biggest man at L.A. High, is showing fine form at shot put. He is expected to equal the record made at the Southern California meet, last season. Sheldon has also the reputation of being the best L.A. player at L.A.

Micky McClure, who has been forced to remain away from track practice because of an injury, is expected to return to the team in a few days. He is a Rugby game, reports improvement and will be out tomorrow.

The athletic treasurer of L. A. High reports, contrary to public opinion, that the past Rugby season has been a success, financially. The last game pulled the team out of the hole.

Von Patton may again coach L. A.'s baseball team.

Coach Noble is keeping his track candidate under strict discipline. "Come out to practice every day or not at all," are the words that he has posted up in the lower halls.

Mild "roughing" is again taking possession of some of the L.A. boys. The other day a youth with loud purple socks made his appearance on the school grounds. The screaming color was objected to, immediately, and in an attempt to remove the pedal exerciser, a lively tussle ensued.

It was done in good natured way however, and no one was hurt.

How do you like military drill? asked a student of one of the L.A. High cadets, the other day. "Oh, it's quite boring," the other answered.
